Lancashire Built Environment Conference

#BEC26

About the conference

From developers, contractors and architects to planners, consultants, local authorities, education providers and investors, the conference explores the projects, partnerships and investment driving Lancashire forward.

Through expert debate, practical insight and valuable networking, delegates will hear from the organisations delivering Lancashire's biggest developments while making connections that lead to future opportunities.

This year's discussions will focus on:

- People – the leaders driving change
- Places – regeneration and development across Lancashire
- Projects – the schemes shaping our economy
- Partnerships – collaboration that delivers success
